WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long. O Lord, you are good and forgiving, full of mercy to all who call to you.

Cf. Ps 86 (85): 3, 5

“You duped me, O LORD, and I let myself be duped” These words of Jeremiah strike home for every Christian at some point in life. Like Jeremiah, we find ourselves scorned by those around us - often those closest to us! Yet we can not stop proclaiming the truth, even when we want to stay silent. It leaks out of us in our way of life and slips into our speech no matter how hard we try to hide it.

The Prophet Jeremiah

We DO thirst for God - and how often we have been satisfied at the font of love that Christ has opened for us! How could we turn elsewhere? To whom would we go? Who else has the words of everlasting life?

Like Jeremiah and Peter after him, we have learned that we must take up our cross and follow Christ. We too will find ourselves struggling as Jeremiah did or stumbling as Peter did. But the Lord chooses them and us not because we are perfect, but because He loves us. Even as we grapple with life’s difficulties, we can trust the love of Christ!

Pope Saint Gregory

I - also called Saint Gregory the Great - is celebrated on September 3 and is most known for his reforms of the liturgy, particularly chant.

Icon of St. Gregory the Great
(by Theophilia at deviantart.com)

At the Second Vatican Council, the role of chant in prayer and worship was strongly re-affirmed: “The Church acknowledges Gregorian chant as specially suited to the Roman liturgy: therefore, other things being equal, it should be given pride of place in liturgical services.”

(Sacrosanctum Concilium, 116)

How do we prepare well for Mass? In ordinary circumstances this takes conscious effort, but moreso when Mass involves seeing friends we haven’t talked to in months, signing in before entering, and sometimes even bringing your own chair to set up a place to sit in the parking lot!

Now more than ever we need to gather ourselves for prayer. As I consider my needs and those of my family & friends, what ought I offer alongside the bread & wine in the prayers of the Mass today? How am I opening my heart to the Word as it is proclaimed? Am I ready to encounter Jesus as He comes to me? As we slowly return to Mass together let us be sure that we never fail to pray deliberately, so as to draw close to Christ.

A PRAYER FOR BEFORE MASS

"Eternal Father, we members of your blessed son Jesus Christ's Mystical Body (His Church), in prayerful union with other members of His Church throughout the world, especially those who are suffering or living under oppression, and those who desire to go to Mass but are unable to do so; in spiritual communion with the intentions and affections of The Immaculate Heart of Our Lady of Sorrows on Calvary, the Angels and Saints in Heaven, our patron Saints, our Guardian angels-we all join in offering this Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, this unbloody renewal and extension of Christ's Sacrifice on the Cross for the following intentions:

1) To adore and worship God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit and to pledge our love and loyalty forever to the God who made us to Know, Love and Serve Him in this world and to be happy with Him forever in Heaven.

2) To thank Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for opening the gates of Heaven by His sacrificial death on Calvary and to thank God for all the blessings and graces He has bestowed upon us throughout our lives especially for the supernatural gifts of Faith, Hope and Charity; those gifts of Truth, Love and Peace which Christ promised to leave with us.

3) We express our sorrow for having offended God in any way throughout our lives and offer our prayers, works, sufferings, joys and even ourselves, to the Eternal Father with this sacrifice of the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of His Dearly Beloved Son in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

4) Finally, we petition the Triune God for the Grace from this Eucharist to conform every conscious endeavor of our lives to the will of the Father in all things as did Christ. We also pray for all persons, places and things-absent, present, living and dead-for which we are bound in conscience or have expressed a desire to pray for, especially for an increase in vocations, for peace among nations, for the conversion of Russia and for the end of the unspeakable crime of abortion. Amen."
