WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

O God, come to my assistance; O Lord, make haste to help me! You are my rescuer, my help; O Lord, do not delay.
Cf. Ps 70 (69): 2, 6

The readings for this Sunday remind us of the great generosity of the Lord. After miraculously freeing His people Israel from hundreds of years of slavery in Egypt, after wondrously leading them through the Red Sea, after destroying their pursuers without their lifting a finger, after promising to take them to a land to uniquely their own, God finds Himself receiving from them not gratitude & trust, but complaints and bitterness.

“Would that we had died at the Lord’s hand in the land of Egypt, as we sat by our fleshpots and ate our fill of bread!”

If it were any of us in God’s position, wouldn’t we be insulted, outraged, and maybe just done?

Instead, God responds with extraordinary generosity - sending them bread from heaven, quail, and fresh water from a rock! And when His people stray - generation after generation - He sends His Son. That same Son ultimately offers not only His life for our sins, but His very Body & Blood for our nourishment.

Let us take the time to thank the Lord for His goodness, patience, and generosity to us.

August 6th is the feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord, where Christ was revealed in His glory to Peter, James, and John.

Rooted in the scriptural accounts, celebration of this feast was first celebrated by the Church in the east (particularly east Syrians) before being added to the liturgical calendar by the Church in the west in the fifteenth century.

Last Sunday we restored our holy water fonts to all the entrances of the parish. This simple tradition - from which we abstained during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic - has deep roots in our sacramental life.

Though we may bless ourselves with holy water by habit, and perhaps even absent-mindedly, it is meant to call to mind that sacrament by which we entered the Church. How fitting that this is done as we enter into our local church, preparing to celebrate the Mass. Praise God for this renewed opportunity to so bless ourselves!

Volunteer at St. Mark this Summer

Summer is a great time to get all those little chores that niggle at us around our homes done.

Our parish campus is no different; we have many little chores niggling! If you have some spare time this summer, are handy with a paint brush, like to power wash, weeds fear you, cleaning windows satisfies you, or you just have a little extra time, we would love your help! We can volunteer whenever convenient and no long term commitment needed!

If you have a little time and willing hands please contact Carlos in the office at (206) 364-7900 or by email at carlos@saintmarksoreline.org

Become an Usher at St. Mark

You are invited to become an Usher! Ushers work in teams to oversee collections at Mass, assist people as they enter the church, offer help during emergencies, greet parishioners and hold the doors open. This vital ministry is open to adults and a background check is required. The goal is to serve once a month on a rotating schedule.

Please contact Veronica Olson at the parish office for more information and training!

Archdiocese Criminal Justice Ministry and Upcoming Jail & Prison Ministry Training

Years of harsh and increasingly retributive responses to crime have resulted in the U.S. maintaining the highest prison population on earth. Our hope is to cultivate a restorative model of criminal justice that will transform suffering by identifying and addressing the deeper needs and traumas underlying any occurrence of harm. Restorative justice is a model that seeks healing for all rather than punishment of one. Ultimately, we recognize the broken body of Jesus in everyone impacted by crime and we are therefore committed to accompanying all affected people on their journey toward transformation and wholeness. We believe this approach honors the Gospel imperative to resist all that diminishes personal dignity and crushes the human spirit. Instead, we seek to manifest resurrection and the kingdom of heaven on earth. For more information on the Criminal Justice Ministry of the Archdiocese of Seattle please go to: <https://arch-seattle.org/ministries/outreach-ministries/criminal-justice-ministry/>

Learn how to bring the love and light of Christ into correctional facilities. In our archdiocese we have: nine state prisons; seven county jails; five juvenile detention facilities; one tribal jail; one state special commitment center; one federal detention center and one federal immigration detention center. Share your ministerial experience and gain a rich theological understanding of the mission of the Jail and Prison Ministry.

Jail & Prison Ministry 101: Attend a series of six free Zoom training sessions. The sessions will be on Tuesdays and begin on Tuesday, September 7. Please register at: <https://archseattle.org/ministries/outreach-ministries/criminal-justice-ministry/jail-and-prison-ministry-101/>

"Love is never something ready made, something merely 'given' to man and woman; it is always at the same time a 'task' which they are set. Love should be seen as something which in a sense never 'is' but is always only 'becoming', and what it becomes depends upon the contribution of both persons and the depth of their commitment."

"Dear Lord teach me to be generous; teach me to serve you as you deserve, to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for reward, save that of knowing that I do your will. Amen."

Saint Clare

Saint Clare founded the Poor Clare nuns and spent her life quietly praying.

Saint Clare lived before TV was invented, but she is the patron saint of TV. Can you guess why?

When she was too sick to go to church, she saw a vision of Mass on her wall. It probably looked like a flat screen TV!
