WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world and that which contains all things understands what is said, alleluia.

Cf. Wis 1: 7

This weekend we celebrate the end of the Easter season and the birth of the Church: the coming of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost.

Though the visible sign of the Holy Spirit were the tongues of flames descending upon them, the more visible and lasting signs are found in the Apostles themselves: from that day forward they went forth to all ends of the earth proclaiming the Gospel.

Sometimes we pray for miracles such as the Apostles experienced. This overlooks an important truth: the greater gift is not found in flames hovering over believers or a charism of speaking in tongues.

The greatest gift received in baptism & confirmation: the indwelling of the Holy Spirit!

May we pray for the same missionary zeal that was given to the Twelve, that we may likewise go forth to model and share the Good News.

“Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.”

June 6 is the memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church.

How fitting that our re-entry into Ordinary Time begins with a reminder that Mary is a patron of us all.

We spent the final week of our in-parish mission opening our hearts to the gifts of the Holy Spirit. May we likewise turn to the Blessed Virgin as both our model and our intercessor, trusting that She will care for and intercede for us to Her Son.

Mary, Mother of the Church - pray for us!

“Receive the Holy Spirit.

Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

John 20:19-23

With these words, Jesus established the sacrament of reconciliation. From the beginning of the Church’s history, Christians understood the necessity of confession (cf 2 Cor. 5:18, James 5:14-17).

Though the Easter season has concluded, confessions are still available. Come celebrate and receive the mercy of the Lord.

Catholic Social Teaching

Catholic social teaching is a central and essential element of our faith. Its roots are in the Hebrew prophets who announced God's special love for the poor and called God's people to a covenant of love and justice. It is a teaching founded on the life and words of Jesus Christ, who came "to bring glad tidings to the poor...liberty to captives...recovery of sight to the blind"(Lk 4:18-19), and who identified himself with "the least of these," the hungry and the stranger (cf. Mt 25:45). Catholic social teaching is built on a commitment to the poor which arises from our experiences of Christ in the eucharist. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church explains, "To receive in truth the Body and Blood of Christ given up for us, we must recognize Christ in the poorest, his brethren" (no. 1397). "Catholic social teaching is a central and essential element of our faith."

Catholic social teaching emerges from the truth of what God has revealed to us about himself. We believe in the triune God whose very nature is communal and social. God the Father sends his only Son, Jesus Christ, and shares the Holy Spirit as his gift of love. God reveals himself to us as one who is not alone but rather as one who is relational, one who is Trinity. Therefore, we who are made in God's image share this communal, social nature. We are called to reach out and to build relationships of love and justice.

Catholic social teaching is based on and inseparable from our understanding of human life and human dignity. Every human being is created in the image of God and redeemed by Jesus Christ and therefore is invaluable and worthy of respect as a member of the human family. Every person, from the moment of conception to natural death, has inherent dignity and a right to life consistent with that dignity. Human dignity comes from God, not from any human quality or accomplishment. Our commitment to the Catholic social mission must be rooted in and strengthened by our spiritual lives. In our relationship with God, we experience the conversion of heart that is necessary to truly love one another as God has loved us.

St. Mark Catholic Classical School Annual JOY Award

Jesus first - Others second - Yourself last

The JOY Award is given to a student in each grade who lives what it means to be Christ like. The JOY award is presented at the end of the year during the promotion/graduation ceremony in June.

The students in each grade determine the recipient through a nomination process involving a paragraph written about their fellow students including examples of how they demonstrate J.O.Y. throughout the year. The teacher of that grade reviews each nomination and ultimately determines the recipient. Each winner receives a plaque at the farewell and awards ceremony in June. The parish is looking forward to this year's awards. Good luck everyone!

CATHOLICS CELEBRATE
JUNETEENTH

— DAY OF FREEDOM —

JUNE 19
DAY OF RECOGNITION
DAY OF RESTORATION
DAY OF CELEBRATION

Let Juneteenth be a time when people of Christian faith, especially white Christians, recommit to, evoke, stand on, and live out the promises of God to deliver all people everywhere from bondage and oppression. Just as God walked the Israelites to freedom and flourishing, God stands on the side of oppressed people in this moment. God’s people are called to roll down justice (Amos 5:24), to model & champion righteousness continuously.

~The Archdiocese of Seattle

As writer Jess McIntosh writes, “We are still in the process of ending slavery, and nowhere near ending its effects.”

Next Step Pregnancy Services

Next Step Pregnancy Services is dedicated to serving with compassion and dignity the immediate and long-term needs of those facing unplanned pregnancies. We promote the sanctity of human life in a non-judgmental atmosphere filled with love and compassion. It is our goal to empower those we serve to make healthy lifestyle choices now and in the future.

Confidentiality is one of our guiding values (the “client” is a clinic volunteer).

Our nurses offer free pregnancy tests and ultrasound exams

Next Step Pregnancy Services opened in 1998 in Shoreline as a pregnancy support center offering counseling on alternatives to abortion and providing an array of material goods to new mothers. In 2010 we moved to Lynnwood and became a medical pregnancy clinic adding early ultrasound exams to our other services. We serve women and families throughout the greater Seattle area.

In 2022 so far...

135 women came to our clinic for a free pregnancy test, 50 women came to us for a free ultrasound exam, we had 1,200 visits to our offices for material goods, including maternity clothes, diapers and wipes, blankets, baby clothes through age two, formula, and when we have them, toys, strollers, highchairs and other baby furniture. We gave away an average of 5000 diapers per month.
