Can you help?

Saint Mark parish is in need of parishioners to help with counting the weekly collection. We could use several people who would count the Sunday offering - usually on a Monday or Tuesday - once or twice a month.

If you are interested in learning more, please contact the parish at (206) 364-7900 x100 or by email at jeannettea@saintmarkshoreline.org

With Saint Mark Catholic Classical school starting in just over a week, our school faculty & staff make final preparations for our students.

Our staff will be gathering this week for a day of retreat - please pray for all of our teachers & staff as they invite the Lord to bless their work!

“Thank you” seem like two such small words to thank you for your tremendous generosity in supporting Christmas in July to help our monastery. At a time of economic hardship for so many we doubly appreciate your gift to us.

Gratefully,

Your Carmelite Nuns of Shoreline

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.
O Lord, you are good and forgiving, full of mercy to all who call to you.

Cf. Ps 86: 3, 5

As we reflect on today's gospel, I'd like to (re) introduce one of my favorite prayers - it is a helpful reflection in identifying where we might most need to invite the Lord's grace!

The Litany of Humility

O Jesus! meek and humble of heart, Hear me.

From the desire of being esteemed,

Deliver me, Jesus.

From the desire of being loved...

From the desire of being extolled ...

From the desire of being honored ...

From the desire of being praised ...

From the desire of being preferred to others...

From the desire of being consulted ...

From the desire of being approved ...

From the fear of being humiliated ...

From the fear of being despised...

From the fear of suffering rebukes ...

From the fear of being calumniated ...

From the fear of being forgotten ...

From the fear of being ridiculed ...

From the fear of being wronged ...

From the fear of being suspected ...

That others may be loved more than I,

Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

That others may be esteemed more than I ...

That, in the opinion of the world,

others may increase and I may decrease ...

That others may be chosen and I set aside ...

That others may be praised and I unnoticed ...

That others may be preferred to me in everything...

That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should...

August 29 is the memorial of the beheading of Saint John the Baptist. It might seem strange to celebrate such a terrible moment, but the life and role John the Baptist was to proclaim the truth and prepare the way for Jesus.

It is no wonder that he lost his life for his fidelity and boldness - but it is a wonder that he persevered! We celebrate Saint John's witness to Lord, and ask that by his intercession we might be equally prophetic in our discipleship and ministry in our vocations.

Between the availability of liturgical publications and internet resources, it is easier than ever to prepare for and follow along with the readings at celebrations of the Mass.

Though we are not obliged to do so, many folks - Catholics and visitors alike - find it helpful to read along with the lectors at Mass or check them out online beforehand.

Saint Mark parish offers copies of The Word Among Us, though there are other publications (such as Magnificat) or even all-in-one missals. Perhaps one of these might be of use for you!
