Rachel's Corner Hope & Healing After Abortion
"I finally admitted to what I did, faced it and feel forgiven. I was able to honor the life of my children, and have peace knowing they are in heaven. I feel like the burden is lifted, not totally, but lighter. I've given it all to God." - Testimonial

Acknowledging before God what your role was in the abortion decision is not easy. But it is one of the first steps to letting God help you with the regret and the burden you carry. The women of Project Rachel© have been there too and are ready to stand with you as you take those important steps.

Christmas Giving Tree 2022

The Christmas Giving Tree is back this year. Gifts are powerful ways of telling people that we care.

With financial gifts this year we are making it simple for our recipient organizations, many of whom are still hesitant to organize and receive tangible gifts. Care facilities, for example, will use our gifts to buy needed items for their patients. A pregnancy support center will use our gift to recertify its ultrasound machine.

Our gifts will help those who use or share food or clothing to stock their shelves with what is most needed.

Look for the Giving Tree in the narthex at weekend Masses on November 26 & November 27.

St. Mark Social Events Team Needs Your Talents!

St. Mark plans to regularly hold social events where we can make new acquaintances, strengthen existing ones, and enjoy each other's company within a Catholic setting.

We need 5 to 7 volunteers to serve on the team. The Social Events Team will plan and schedule social events, then ask fellow parishioners to take on leadership roles in making these events happen. Team members could also volunteer to help carry out the events. To join the team or learn more, sign up on the Saint Mark website by clicking here.

SAVE THE DATE!

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

How worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and divinity, and wisdom and strength and honor. To him belong glory and power for ever and ever.

Cf. Rev. 5:12, 1:6

Today we celebrate the last Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. As we come to the end of the liturgical year, we look to our ultimate end and the return of our king.

Did you notice the Gospel reading that the Church chose for today? Perhaps the only obviously regal reference was this line: "Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews." Betrayed & abandoned by his friends, condemned & tortured, and dying on a cross under a sign meant to mock Him.

Who could call that glory?

While that's where we started this Gospel, it is the ending that shows Christ's sovereignty: "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." Despite the misery of His circumstances, Jesus accomplishes universally and personally exactly what He came to do: the salvation of man.

Jesus is the source of our salvation - but there is still one thing lacking: our openness to His grace. May we make the words of the good thief our own. "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

Monday, November 21 is the memorial of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Tradition holds that the parents of the Blessed Virgin - Joachim & Anne - presented Mary at the Temple to consecrate her to the Lord in thanksgiving for her birth.

This celebration was first documented by the Byzantine Catholic Church in the 11th century before being adopted by the Roman Catholic Church in the 16th century.

Mary, Mother of God, pray for us!

Today we begin four weeks of Eucharistic processions at Saint Mark parish. Immediately after the 10:30 am Mass each Sunday, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed in a monstrance and we will have a brief procession. In good weather, we'll go outside along the perimeter of Saint Mark - otherwise we will process around the perimeter of the church.

This an opportunity to worship the Lord in praise & adoration - consider joining us one (or each!) Sunday as we pray together.
