COMING SOON...

High Tea at Saint Mark

Cake, sandwiches, fruit, candy, cookies, and of course, tea! On Saturday, June 24th at 1pm in the gym, this enjoyable tradition returns to Saint Mark, sponsored by the Women's Group.

Proceeds benefit Saint Mark Catholic Classical School. $10 at the door, many fun raffle baskets.

Rachel's Corner Hope & Healing After Abortion

The women and men of the Project Rachel ministry invite you to let God begin to clear the murky waters that appeared after the loss due to an abortion decision.

He wants you to learn to see yourself as He sees you.

Annual Baby Bottle Campaign for Next Step Pregnancy Services

Beginning Saturday, June 24th, through Sunday, July 9th, parishioners can participate in our annual campaign to support your local pro-life pregnancy clinic Next Step Pregnancy Services in Lynnwood.

Bottles will be handed out after all Masses the weekend of June 24th so please look for the Next Step Pregnancy Services Information Table where you can meet Executive Director Heather Vasquez and pick up a bottle.

Bottles can be returned to the church the weekend of July 9th or to the Next Step Pregnancy Services clinic in Lynnwood.

Next Step is open Monday-Friday 9:30am-5:30pm – You are welcome to come visit and get a tour! (19526 - 64th Ave West, Lynnwood WA 98036 - (425)329-4569 / heather@nextstepnw.com)

You can also donate online at our support site in lieu of taking a bottle – nssupport.org – just look for the Baby Bottle Campaign tab to find St. Mark's baby bottle drive to support women and men in choosing life for their unborn children.

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

Cf. Ps 81 (80): 17

This week, on June 13th (the feast of Saint Anthony of Padua - my confirmation saint!), I will celebrate my 14th anniversary of priestly ordination. Father Jerry Burns, Father Bryon Dickey, Father Patrick O'Hogan, and Father Todd Strange were also ordained that day.

At my Thursday school classroom question and answer visits, the students will often ask questions about discernment to the priesthood and the life of a priest. To the question of discernment, the key is being prepared at all times to say 'yes' to the invitation of the Lord.

Easier said than done, I think we'd all agree!

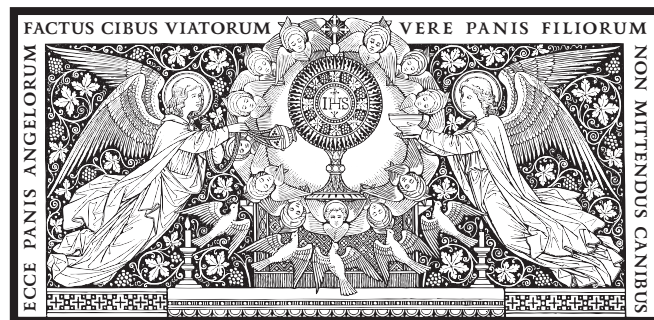

As for the life of a priest, I would emphasize how good it is to be a priest. Even among Catholics, we too often focus on what is sacrificed at the expense of seeing what is gained.

And what is gained is amazing! Being a priest is an extraordinary privilege - not only are we invited into the heart of the mysteries of the Lord, but we are invited into the hearts of those we serve. It is truly a gift and a joy to be a priest - and to be your priest.

In your kindness, please pray for me and for all those priests who celebrate their anniversaries over these weeks. And let us all pray that many young men will hear & answer the call to serve as priests locally and across the archdiocese!

The solemnity of Corpus Christi has its roots in a Eucharistic miracle occurring at a Mass celebrated by priest who struggled with belief in the Real Presence - the host started bleeding at the consecration! This event triggered an investigation and greater devotion to the Eucharist, eventually resulting in the establishment of today's liturgical celebration.

The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) carries a special place in my heart - not only because it is an extraordinary celebration (and it is!), but because it was my first celebration after being ordained a priest. Not only did I celebrate my first Mass of thanksgiving (at Star of the Sea in Bremerton), but we followed that with a Eucharistic procession around the church!

The joy of the Eucharist is found not just at the altar, but in sharing this gift with those around us. May we be inspired to invite others to join us in gathering with the Lord - at Mass and in processions!
